

Please do not change FCC rules to allow cross-ownership of newspapers and TV stations in the same markets. Such an increase in the concentration of an industry that already looks like a 'trust' would be harmful to freedom of speech. In addition, any such change would decrease still further the independence of newspapers vis-a-vis the TV/entertainment industry.
Thank you.